ITALIAN VILLA STONE®

The stone experts at Coronado have been working overtime to bring you a number of new stones that lend themselves to the European look. We traveled the European Continent photographing stone architecture so that we could replicate the old world charm of the European Villas. Coronado is proud to introduce Italian Villa Stone, Tuscan Villa Stone, Mountain Villa Stone and French Country Villa Stone.

This beautiful combination of richly textured fieldstones and ledgestones was inspired by the centuries old villas we saw all across the Italian countryside. Now you can bring a "Bit of Italy" to your villa.

TUSCAN VILLA STONE® Tuscan Villa Stone Color: Florentine

In Tuscany we found an architectural style in stone with inspiring warmth and charm. Our Tuscan Villa Stone's minimal profile and rich earthy hues together help to recreate the aesthetic quality that harkens back to a day and time long gone by.

OLD WORLD LEDGE®

Coronado's Old World Ledge takes the "rustic" look to a new level. Old World Ledge's stratified textures and rough quarried design were meticulously created for an incredibly natural appearance. Combine that kind of beauty with Coronado's famous time-saving panelized stones and you'll understand why Coronado continues to be "The Leader in Manufactured Stone".

Old World Ledge panels can be used in either a drystack or grouted installation.

CORONADO HONEY LEDGE

The flatter profiles and sawtooth textures of Coronado Honey Ledge lend themselves to a more formal ledgestone design. Once again, Coronado's "hard to find" panelized stones make installation a breeze without sacrificing a natural look.

COUNTRYRUBBLE

This office building near Dallas, Texas used three different products to achieve an award winning design. Country Rubble was used on most of the project. Belgian Castle (Page 42) was used at the base and at the top of the building, and Special Used Thin Brick (Page 54) was used as banding and window trim.
